Committee Reports

Ag Livestock – Elected officers - Reviewed Livestock ID procedures (changes highlighted on sheet) - Set Market Beef weigh-in date for Saturday, February 12, 9 - 11 a.m. - Fairbook proposed changes - sheet attached with proposed changes to sheep, goat & Round Robin Showmanship. Also change minimum weight of meat pen poultry—each bird weigh a minimum of 3 lbs.. Fairbook proposed schedule changes - bucket calf and dairy cattle show on Thursday morning, 9:30 or 10 a.m. Animal mgmt. skilathon to have in person. Proposed all animals don't have to weigh but tags must be in animals ear and verified at co. fair weigh-in, if animal does not weigh, not eligible for rate of gain award.

Next Meeting is in March

Achievement Banquet, 4-H Day, Promotion – Feedback from Achievement Banquet - 4-H Day is March 6 at North Oak Community Church - Reviewed event rules - suggested changes to Regional rules committee - suggested judges - Next Meeting is in March

Home Ec, BBQ, Foodstand – met Jan. 31st. Sheena Klaus & Kylie Dreiling will give this report at 4-H council.

Committee proposed changes - keep exhibitor breakfast on Tuesday 7-9 a.m., no BBQ, move 4-H Food Challenge to Saturday morning. Food stand managers Mike & Amy Jensen would like to transition out of managing it, but will help this year—order food. One 4-H club work each day and the 4-H club finds the helpers and man's the food stand for their clubs designated day. The clubs will be in a set rotation every year, (i.e. BJJ work Tuesday this year and next year BJJ will work Wednesday). All clubs names were put into a hat and drew for what day of the week they will work. Tuesday - BJJ; Wednesday - Gemini Jrs.; Thursday - VV; Friday - Good Hope & Growing Leaders; Saturday - Big Creek, Shooting Sports, and Ellis Sunflowers.

Fashion Revue - from co. fair evaluation an idea was given at the fair to have a fashion revue showcase at the fair. The committee suggested video taping the actual fashion show/revue, and set up a place to show it during the whole week of the co. fair.
