Kylee Pfeifer called the Ag Livestock meeting to order November 23, 2021, at 6:30. Sheena Klaus gave the Treasurer’s report with $9,408.32 in the checking account. There is $4,231.84 in the Horse account.

We elected Lindsey Scheck as President, Jaiden Pfannenstiel as Vice President, Sheena Klaus as Secretary, Kinley Pfannenstiel as Treasurer, Justin Scheck & Wade Pfannenstiel as our 2 adult advisors.

For the Round Robin we decided that we liked our point system. Kylee Pfeifer moved and Colton Metzler seconded that we not use questions to determine champions, and that questions about your specie are only used as a tie breaker. Motion carried.

Levi Schumacher moved we table Meat goat rule changes to the next meeting Kylee Pfeifer seconded. Motion carried. Kylee Pfeifer moved that we add “no artificial coloring” to the proposed rule #5 on Sheep fitting and accept the proposed class 6 on Commercial Ewes. Scarlett Herman seconded. Motion carried.

Kinley Pfannenstiel moved that the minimum weight for a meat bird is 3 lbs., and we have a grand/reserve in meat pen, grand/reserve chickens, and grand/reserve waterfowl. Kylee Pfeifer seconded. Motion carried.

Kylee Pfeifer moved that we buy walkie talkies and electronic timers from the horse account. Kinley Pfannenstiel seconded. Motion carried.

We reviewed the 4-H Livestock ID procedures. We discussed that pig tags need to be checked in on weigh in day. Kylee Pfeifer moved that all animals don’t have to weigh but tags must be verified at County weigh-in. If you choose not to go across the scales at the weigh in, you will not be eligible for rate of gain. Colton Metzler seconded. Motion carried.

Levi Schumacher moved that Market Beef weigh in date is February 5, 2022, or February 12, 2022, from 9-11 depending on the date of the Kansas Classic. Motion carried. Danielle Schumacher agreed to let the Extension Office know when that date is confirmed.

Sheena Klaus will make the report to 4-H Council. We discussed having meetings back-to-back to save time and not waiting a month to get an answer.

May 22nd is the Ellis County Spring Show.

Jaiden Pfannenstiel moved that we use doodle poll to set meeting dates.

Kylee Pfeifer adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully Submitted,
Sheena Klaus
Secretary
