4-H ORGANIZATIONAL CLUB LEADER
VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION
Ellis County 4-H Program

PURPOSE: Organize a 4-H community club by coordinating members, leaders, and their families to determine a plan for the club’s involvement, and to determine resources needed for that plan. Involve youth in becoming competent, caring, connected, citizens of character in their community.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
- Complete VIP volunteer screening process.
- Lead and coordinate and activities of local community club, recruit members and volunteers for community club, and organize club activities and events.
- Serve as a liaison and communication link between the County Extension Office, local 4-H professional, 4-H members, their parents, and other volunteers regarding 4-H club programs.
- Support 4-H professionals, volunteers and members in conducting meaningful educational experiences to help youth grow and reach their fullest potential.
- To develop members, parents and other volunteers by informing them of and encouraging them to actively participate in appropriate 4-H activities and opportunities including club programs, project work, community service, social events and participation in county, area, and state events.
- Secure club organization materials and facilitate completion of enrollment forms and other paperwork as requested by the County Extension Office.
- Assist officers in learning their responsibilities; preparing for meetings, basic parliamentary procedures, developing committees and planning and conducting meetings. Meet with them prior to the monthly meeting to develop the agenda.
- Publicize and promote activities in which the club is actively engaged.
- Welcome parents’ ideas, activity and project assistance, cooperation, support and attendance at 4-H activities.
- Read 4-H newsletters and literature from the County Extension Office and keep members, parents and other volunteers informed of project educational opportunities.
- Continually provide feedback to members, letting them know when they are doing a good job and advising them when they need to improve.
- Participate in one or more volunteer development opportunities each year.
- Be sensitive to risks and use risk management strategies related to project work.
- Maintain sensitivity to the individual differences of 4-H members such as differences in interests, abilities, personal needs, cultural heritage and family support.
- Follow all guidelines & policies of the K-State Research and Extension, the Kansas 4-H program, and the county 4-H program

QUALIFICATIONS:
- Completion of the Volunteer Information Profile process and approval by the Ellis Co. Extension Council
- The ability to organize and motivate youth while nurturing positive youth development, decision making, responsibility, and leadership in youth.
- Understanding of the developmental characteristics of youth.
- The ability to communicate effectively with youth, parents and other adult volunteers and staff.
