

4-H PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE MEMBER VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION

Ellis County 4-H Program

PURPOSE: Program Development Committee members are charged with giving input to local and state-wide efforts in identifying information needed to address social, economic, and environmental concerns. 4-H Program Development Committee members identify issues and opportunities that serve as a basis for the 4-H program's content and emphasis by:

- Helping set priorities and goals for the 4-H program
- Implementing the 4-H program and its activities
- Evaluating the 4-H program and its activities including the impact which the 4-H program and its activities make upon the participants, stakeholders and county
- Explain and promote 4-H programs, procedures and opportunities to the youth, organizations and governing bodies of the county
- Ensure that a broad-based 4-H program is available to all youth

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Become familiar with the mission of Extension and focus of Extension educational program efforts at the national and state levels.
- Become familiar with conditions affecting youth in the county.
- Identify educational needs and opportunities for the county 4-H program.
- Become familiar with educational resources available through K-State Research and Extension.
- Identify and involve local, area, and state resources needed to help plan and conduct the program.
- Plan, prioritize, and implement a comprehensive educational program designed to meet the needs of individuals and targeted issues affecting communities.
- Submit program plans to the Executive Board for funding consideration, approval, and support.
- Coordinate educational program efforts with public and private groups, agencies, and organizations in the county.
- Involve people with the program by helping to recruit leaders and volunteers to assist.
- Assist with evaluating program accomplishments.
- Work cooperatively with the other three program development committees to plan, implement, and evaluate a unified County Extension program.
- Attend bi-monthly meetings
- Follow all guidelines & policies of the K-State Research and Extension, the Kansas 4-H program, and the county 4-H program

QUALIFICATIONS:

- A willingness to become familiar with and work within the philosophy and guidelines of K-State Research and Extension, Kansas 4-H, and the local 4-H program.
- An interest in working with and supporting the Extension 4-H/Youth Development agent
- The ability to motivate parents and other volunteers to assume leadership positions
- The ability to work with minimum supervision from professional staff
- A sincere interest in working with other volunteers and professional staff in an educational setting

TIME REQUIRED: Position is a two-year term. Attend bi-monthly meetings. Attend 4-H educational programming as time allows.

LOCATION: County Extension Office

RESOURCES AVAILABLE:

K-State Research and Extension in Ellis County agrees to:

- Provide training opportunities (local and/or area) that will help meet the needs of members, leaders, and parents.

SALARY:

Unsalaries: Volunteer

BENEFITS

- Expenses incurred and miles driven are tax deductible.
- Leadership development opportunities
- Strengthen personal leadership, communication, organizational skills
- Opportunity to share your skills, talents, and interests
- The opportunity to make a difference in the life of a child
- Increased self worth by giving back to the community

RESPONSIBLE TO: K-State Research and Extension Staff, Cottonwood Extension District Council

MENTOR/SUPERVISING PROFESSIONAL

Tamara Robertson

Cottonwood Extension District – 4-H Youth Development Agent

601 Main St.

Hays, KS 67601

(785) 628-9430

(785) 621-2002 – Fax

tarobertson@ksu.edu

<http://cottonwood.k-state.edu/>

I will work to “Make the Best Better” through my role as a 4-H Program Development Committee Member

I will work to support volunteer efforts to “Make the Best Better” in Ellis Co. 4-H

Volunteer’s Signature

Date

Extension Professional Signature

Date